Theorem. The amount by which the sum of the angles of a spherical triangle exceeds $\pi$ is proportional to the area of the triangle.
The amount by which the sum of the angles of a spherical triangle exceeds $\pi$ is proportional to the area of the triangle.